

Scholarships Available For Canadian Entrepreneurs, University Seattle, WA.

Linx BC would like to make you aware that the Canadian Consulate in Seattle has made available 15 scholarships that they have underwritten to Entrepreneur University in Seattle on November 2nd, 2006.

These are open to any Canadian entrepreneur or Canadian student aspiring to be an entrepreneur. Linx BC was made aware of this opportunity at a recent reception hosted by Linx BC, its member communities and the Canadian Consulate.

Entrepreneur University, the Northwest Entrepreneur Network's essential annual summit for the region's brightest entrepreneurial minds, provides a unique opportunity to get tips and advice directly from some of the best drivers in business.

Such keynoters include: Jim Sinegal, Costco Co-founder and CEO, and Qpass Founder and Chief Strategist Chase Franklin. EU will be held all day, Thursday, November 2nd at the Sheraton Hotel in downtown Seattle.

As a Canadian entrepreneur or student, you can register today at <https://www.123signup.com/register?id=qckbq>.

The cost to attend EU would normally be $325, but with the scholarship, your cost is only $50.

If you have questions, please call Cynthia Chirot at the Northwest Entrepreneur Network (425) 564-5700 or John Pearce at the Consulate (206) 770-4078
